Filter your forwarded email

In your Gmail, click the triangle at the end of the Search bar.

In the To box, enter your other (forwarded) email address, then click "Create filter with this search".

Select "Apply the label", then "New Label", create a label something like "sent to usm address", and select it in the list. Select "Also apply to matching messages", then "Create filter".